

Report of the 10th Annual Meeting of the Mexico Chapter of InterPore

The annual meeting of the Mexico Chapter of InterPore was held at the Engineering School of the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM) during March 7-8, 2024, with the participation of 22 talks distributed as follows:

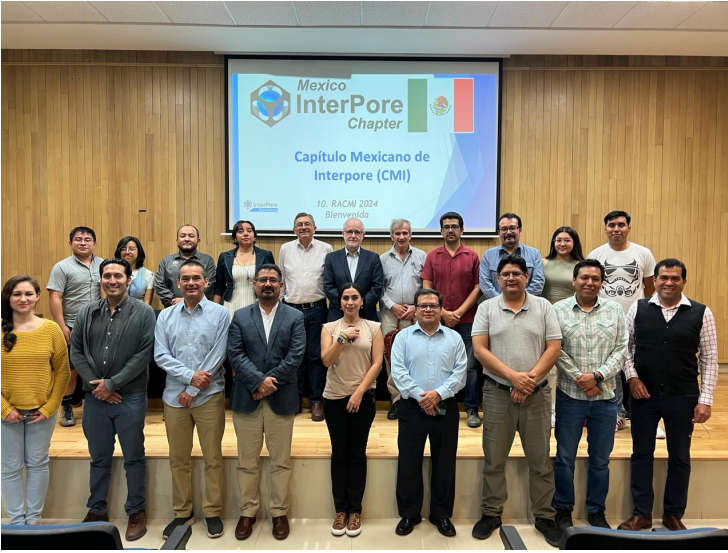

- 1 plenary conference (online) by Prof. Ruben Juanes, from MIT, Kimberly-Clark Distinguished Lecturer Award
- 1 guest lecture by Prof. Tito Bonagamba from the University of Sao Paulo, Brasil
- 6 talks in the session Other Applications
- 2 talks in the session Artificial Porous Systems
- 2 talks in the session Geothermal Systems
- 7 talks in the session Porous Systems in Energetic Resources
- 3 talks in the session Soils and Aquifers

The meeting was opened by Dr. Rodolfo Camacho, professor of UNAM and President of the Mexico Chapter of InterPore who gave a short introduction to the mission of InterPore and the Mexico Chapter.

Some shots of the event are the following:

Plenary by Prof. Juanes

Auditorium Raúl J. Marsal

Engineering School (UNAM)

Dinner in Coyoacán (Mexico City)